REALITIES IN RUSSIA. RAPID GROWTH OF MILITARISM. THE RULE OF FORCE.

Dr. Haden Guest, Joint Secretary of the British Labour Delegation to Russia, on his return from Russia, has contributed a series of articles to the Times on Russian conditions. The following is one of his concluding articles:

One of our first experiences on entering Soviet Russia was being ushered into a special train made up of carriages of the International Sleeping Car Company, with dining-car and kitchen attached. This train was not only profusely decorated with red bunting and green boughs, but also guarded by a number of very smart officers of Bashkir Cavalry, beautifully dressed, and with flowing blue silk pelisses over their backs. At our first stop in Russia we were received by a guard of honour, and our party inspected the guard while it stood at attention. It was interesting to hear a military band playing the "Internationale," while all the officers stood at the salute and civilians stood with uncovered heads. The "Internationale" has become the "National Anthem" of Russia. One of our strongest first impressions of Russia was that it is a military Power.

In Petrograd, shortly after we arrived, we inspected a tremendous military parade in the Place Oubliette, near the Winter Palace. The sailors were under the command of M. Zolotarev, with whom I had a little talk, and he told me that he was "chief of the Baltic Fleet." There were about 2,500 sailors in this parade; their physical condition is good, they march very well, their clothing is good, and they are armed with rifles. The sailors are the pets of the Revolution, and those who complain of them say they do not work, but live on the fat of the land. A considerable number of the old officers are still serving with them.

After the sailors came two companies of well-equipped soldiers wearing the green-grey cap with a Communist star in front. The next detachment was a battalion of the Labour Army, about 1,000 strong, of whom we should call the B-3 type in England. The Labour Army detachment of 1,000 following them were not quite so good, but most of them were B-2. After the Labour battalion marched six companies of infantry, well clothed and armed, properly armed, of the B-1 type. The next two companies, well clothed and armed, were of the A-1 type; the next three companies were A-1 men also. The chief noticeable feature with regard to the battalion was an occasional variety in their uniforms. The Labour Army detachment of 1,000 following immediately afterwards, as they passed I classified as B-1, A-1, and A-2. That is to say, boys undisciplined. The tail-end of the procession was brought up by a large number, some thousands, of trade unionists, who, I was told, were marching by order.

A TALK WITH TROTSKY. This parade in Petrograd was, by no means the last military display at Moscow, where again we stood at the saluting point on a raised platform decorated with bunting, accompanied, by the way, by a diplomatic representative, a Turkish general from the so-called Turkish Nationalist Government. This typical Turkish officer expressed his desire to do his utmost for humanity. On another occasion in the Grand Theatre at Moscow, Trotsky came in to our box, and we had the opportunity of talking over the situation with him. There is no doubt that Trotsky is tremendously popular; when he appeared at the front of the box at the beginning of the third act, he received a great ovation. I had a little private talk with Trotsky about the Army, and he told me that the Political Commissar who is attached to each body of troops has taken over and extended the functions which were formerly discharged by the priest. Everything which in our Army is done by the Y.M.C.A., by various cantons, by concert parties, or by the chaplains is done in the Russian Army by the Political Commissars, who undertake in addition the political education and the Communist propaganda among their men.

When on the Volga, I had the opportunity of discussing military matters with General Baltiski, who was a general of the Russian Guard and of the Russian General Staff. General Baltiski told me that about half of the old officers were now in the present Army. He explained the defeat of the White Armies of Kolchak, Denikin, and others by their bad administration and by internal political dissension which tore them to pieces.

Baltiski himself commanded the Volga area, which was a large reserve and training area, and included the Governments of Samara, Saratov, Astrakhan, and five others. It was perfectly obvious that Baltiski was not only an officer, but a Guards officer; he was well-dressed, beautifully shaved, and his hair was carefully combed. I am prepared to testify that he was in very good physical condition. It is perfectly clear that the Army, being a large extent master of the situation, looks after itself. It is, indeed, admitted that the Army comes first in consideration of rationing and clothing.

The extent to which militarization has gone in Russia was in evidence everywhere, but two instances struck me particularly. One a review of a large number of school children under 14 who are enlisted in Boy Scouts and Girl Guides, and who took part with some thousands of young persons over 14 and under 18 in giving a great display of military exercises at Moscow. Another incident was at the theatre in Moscow where, during the interval, when we went out to buy lemonade and little cakes at fantastic prices, I saw a number of smartly dressed soldiers with charming young women and in particular one very well-dressed young man with Sam Browne belt and various insignia of rank accompanied by one of the prettiest and one of the most charmingly dressed women I saw in Russia. One was reminded inevitably of England and France during the war.

DOLLAR BASIS FOR THE WORLD'S MAILS. POSTAL UNION CONGRESS.

A Madrid dispatch to the American press on October 10th said:

Changes of sweeping importance in the postal relations of the world will be effected as a result of the deliberations of the International Postal Union Congress. Several committees already have drafted their reports, which must be submitted to the full general committee and thereafter to the whole Congress for final approval, but as the committees in most cases fairly represent the views of the entire body of delegates their reports are virtually certain of acceptance.

The notable item upon which the committee reported favourably are:—
1.—The establishment of international payments for the transit of mails on a gold dollar basis.
2.—The fixing of an increased maximum rate for postage on international mail, but with the proviso that the United States and other countries may retain the present rates or fix their rates according to their own ideas as long as they do not exceed the maximum accepted by the Union.

3.—The Congress only parent countries will have voting power, colonies being excluded from voting, although they may send delegates.
4.—The creation of a pan-American Postal Federation.
INCREASE IN RATES.
The Eastern and Western hemispheres were sharply divided on the question of an increase in international postal rates, the Americans opposing augmentation on the ground that such a measure was calculated to injure commercial interests greatly, and was unnecessary for revenue purposes. The new maximum rate had not yet been fixed, but the committee, having the matter in hand, but the United States and the Latin American countries declared clearly they would not agree to an increase. The committee finally accepted the position that the Western Hemisphere could fix its own rates if they did not exceed the maximum eventually adopted by the Union.

A far-reaching decision was arrived at by the United States and South and Central America with reference to future postal arrangements. An executive committee was nominated for the creation of a Pan-American postal federation, to include every republic on the western side of the Atlantic. The new organization, it is announced, will come into being and begin its functions after the congress at Buenos Aires in August, 1921.

An innovation in the congress was the presence of a woman delegate in the person of Miss Elizabeth Lee Woods, who without joint policy represented the United States jointly with Mexico and Assistant Postmaster-General Otto Praeger, and S. M. Weber, assistant superintendent of foreign mails. Miss Woods made an excellent speech in French which was well received.

DISAPPEARING DICKENS. OLIVER TWIST'S WORKHOUSE CLOSED.

St. George's Workhouse in the Mint Borough, has been closed by the Southwark Board of Guardians, and the inmates transferred to their other institutions, says the Times. This is the workhouse described by Dickens, where Oliver Twist, "asked for more," though in the novel he placed it some distance from London. The copper in which the gruel was made is to be presented to the Southwark Borough Council for preservation in their museum at Walworth Road.

Dickens states that when young Oliver came to the house, the St. George's Board of Guardians had recently introduced a new dietary scale with a view to reducing the number of inmates. The guardians, he writes, have "contracted with the water-works to lay on an unlimited supply of water, and with a corn factor to supply periodically small quantities of oatmeal, and issued three meals of thin gruel a day. On Sunday, it was rather expensive at first, in consequence of the increase in the undertaker's bill, and the necessity of taking the clothes of all the paupers, which stretched loosely on their wasted, shrunken forms after a week or two's gruel. But the number of workhouse inmates got thin as well as the paupers, and the board were in acclivities."

The workhouse in the Mint has also notable references in "Oliver Twist," and readers will remember that here it was that Mr. Bumble, marrying the widow Corney, afterwards became master, ultimately resigning his office with his wife, while both ended their days in the workhouse where previously they had bullied the poor.

THE MILITARY SPIRIT.

The Red flag is being carried with gold embroidery and military inscriptions; the primitive simplicity of revolutionary fervour is giving way to the glory of military decorations, insignia of rank, smart belts and all the rest of the familiar paraphernalia. The more we hammer Russia, the more her military spirit increases, for wherever suffers first it is the Army which suffers last. And the Army which is one of the great pillars and supports of the power of the autocratic Council of Commissars is becoming welded into a great Army with a tremendous reserve on which it can draw for reinforcements. Every month and year which goes by keeping the Army in the field and the military spirit going strengthens the forces making for autocratic government and rule by force.

Those who hope from this a reaction in favour of Tsardom are building on delusions. The peasantry, who form 80 per cent. of the population, will never consent to go back to a régime which might deprive them of the land they have appropriated. If a new Russian autocracy is to arise it will be on Napoleonic lines. If, however, peace is made now Russia's own tremendous power of development will probably turn away from militarism, which is repugnant to the national spirit. But the danger of the militarism of Russia is at the present moment one of the perils of Europe.

REPORT ON WEI-HAI-WEI. DISTURBANCES IN CONNECTION WITH NEW SALT TAX.

The Annual General Report for 1919, signed by Sir J. H. Stewart Lockhart, states that the revenue collected during the year amounted to $7,645,000, as compared with $10,723 during the previous year, and exceeds the original estimate by $30,146. This is the largest amount collected in any one year since this Territory came under British administration. The expenditure for the year amounted to $2,977,141, as compared with $1,943,000 in 1918, and is $2,558 in excess of the original estimate. This excess is more than accounted for by the fact that a sum of $21,239 was paid as war allowances to officials, both British and Chinese, and that $3,021 were expended for the purchase of new rifles and equipment for the Police of this Territory. The Territory is still dependent on a grant-in-aid from Imperial funds.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

The general condition of the territory during the year 1919 cannot be regarded as satisfactory as in previous years. Owing to drought the crops were almost an entire failure. Notwithstanding the shortage of food, the behaviour of the inhabitants of the territory was excellent, and there was no crime of a serious nature within the territory, though the daily average in goal was 37.15, as compared with 27.8 in 1918.

But the districts bordering on the territory were in a disturbed condition. A considerable number of burglaries and robberies occurred in those districts during the year. Owing to the introduction of a new salt tax, several of the newly-established collecting stations were burnt down, and some of the officials connected with them were murdered. This happened in the Laiyang district, and caused much unrest in the districts adjoining this territory. In June a gang of pirates, numbering 40, having landed on the coast beyond the boundary of this territory, committed various robberies, captured a Chinese police post, and carried off 20 persons of wealth, whom they held to ransom. The original sum demanded was $100,000, but was subsequently reduced to $30,000. The gang finally captured a junk and made their escape, although 500 troops and police and two gunboats were said to be trying to capture them. The success of this gang gave rise to persistent rumours that similar gangs to the number of 3,000 were about to try their luck in the same neighbourhood, and this created a great scare among the people, and caused a number of wealthy people to seek refuge within the borders of the leased territory, where they are still residing.

The detachment of the 18th Infantry Regiment of the Indian Army, under the command of Captain A. C. M. Bury, made periodical tours round the territory and its border, and its presence has undoubtedly given confidence to the inhabitants of the territory. This detachment is about to return to India, and will be much missed in Wei-hai-wei, where it has made itself very popular and much respected among all classes of the community by its excellent behaviour, which has been faultless during its stay here.

Victory Pier, which was opened at the end of 1918, and the cost of which was met by an increase in shipping dues, has more than justified the expectations of its usefulness by its having been used for shipping and landing the largest proportion of the cargoes exported and imported. It has, in fact, proved to be such a success that a scheme has been recommended for the building of a sea-wall and the making of a storage ground in its immediate neighbourhood, so as to facilitate the sorting of cargo on arrival and its storage whilst awaiting distribution or shipment. The estimated cost of the scheme is $40,000, which it is proposed to meet, as in the case of Victory Pier, by an increase in shipping dues.

CHOLERA OUTBREAK.

Among the Chinese population there was a sharp outbreak of cholera during August and September. The outbreak was not peculiar to this territory, as cholera was widespread throughout the north of China, and extended as far as the island of Formosa, where the disease was especially virulent. In a territory with an area of 236 square miles and a population of 150,000 inhabiting more than 300 villages, the situation was not an easy one to deal with effectively, but Dr. Muat, the Senior Medical Officer, with the small medical and sanitary staff under his control did all that was possible under the circumstances, and deserves great credit for the skill and tact with which he dealt with a very trying situation. The treatment adopted was that of saline transfusion, and of the 232 cases treated the rate of mortality was 22.8 per cent. The greater number of these cases arrived in hospital in a moribund condition, many being clothed in their burial garments, but still recovered. Three transfusion stations were established, and were much appreciated by the Chinese.

IMPROVEMENTS ON ISLAND.

The improvements on the Island of Liu Kung, referred to in the last Annual Report, which are being carried out in order to make the island a health resort in every way satisfactory for His Majesty's Navy, made progress, the erection of the model village for the housing of Chinese employed by the Naval Authorities having been completed. Naval Surgeon-Commander R. R. Muir, R.N., who discharged the duties of Medical Officer of Health on the island in a most efficient manner, and who was a strong supporter of the improvements mentioned, left for home, and was succeeded as Medical Officer of Health by Surgeon-Commander P. L. Crobie, R.N.

Want of the necessary funds still prevents the pulling down of old Chinese houses in Port Edward, and having the town laid out on an approved plan.

TRADE AND SHIPPING.

Trade during 1919 was affected adversely by the boycott of Japanese goods throughout China, and the refusal of the Chinese in the territory to have any dealings in, or to handle, goods emanating from Japanese sources. Complaints were made of such refusal, but it was not possible to persuade the Chinese to change their attitude. This resulted in the cessation of exports from and imports into Japan, and the withdrawal from the trade of this port of Japanese steamers. Up to the end of May, twenty-eight steamers had visited the port, after which date only three steamers called to land passengers. The failure of the local crops also had a very bad effect on trade, for it reduced the farmers to great straits.

SALE OF THE "DUSIT." CLAIM FOR DAMAGES.

In the Foreign Causes Court, Bangkok, the hearing was begun of the claim for damages brought by a shareholder in the Chiao-Siam Steamship Co., Ltd., in liquidation, for damages assessed at about Tes. 100,000, which the company is alleged to have suffered through Phra Anuwatna selling the Dusit for Tes. 100,000, the Anglo-Siam Corporation Ltd. when the actual value was Tes. 200,000 or more.

At the outset Mr. Brighouse said that under the charter all disputes between shareholders and officials of the company had to be submitted to arbitration.

The Court held this did not apply to an action by a shareholder claiming damages. Nai Hida was the first witness. He said he was manager of the Chiao-Siam Steamship Company. His firm had never been consulted in the matter of selling the Dusit. The boat was purchased for Tes. 180,000 and since then repairs had been exacted to the value of several tens of thousands of bahts. He therefore calculated the value of the Dusit at about Tes. 200,000 and Phra Anuwatna in selling her at Tes. 100,000 had caused a loss of a similar amount. He did not suggest fraud against Phra Anuwatna but simply considered he had been negligent in not ascertaining the proper price of the Dusit before selling her. He knew the value of ships went up and down according to the value of freights, but he could not say what the market price of the Dusit was. He knew when the Company held their annual meeting from the notices in the newspapers.

A letter in Chinese from his firm to the Chinese Chamber of Commerce was produced by Koh Hai Cheok, and the witness admitted this letter was written by his firm.

Plaintiff's lawyer then stated that it was necessary for him to examine the various exhibits produced by the liquidator and the letter in Chinese before he could proceed with his witnesses, as up to now he had not had an opportunity of doing so and the Court adjourned the case till the 6th December.—Bangkok Times.

"WITH THE INDIANS IN FRANCE."

SIR JAMES WILCOCKS' TRIBUTE TO INDIAN CORPS.

Sir James Wilcocks' book "With the Indians in France," published by Constable, contains interesting details of the achievement of the Indian Corps in 1914 and 1915, and abounds in individual exploits of British and Indian in the campaign, which is described as the test which proved the fine fighting spirit of the officers and men and the existence of the desire for modern equipment. He pays tribute to the high quality of the British Officers whom he thinks "Indian officers, although their equal in bravery and self-sacrifice, will never be able to replace owing to the difference of training and temperament. He mentions that, on the occasion of a visit to the India Corps, Lord Roberts emphasised the duty of the Corps Commander to remind the Higher Command that Indian troops must be used with discretion and not be flung into battle indiscriminately. Touching upon the deterioration in number and type of the reinforcements, he alleges that recruiting was discouraged by the failure to keep Indian informed of the achievements of her soldier, while he declares that on several occasions the Corps was not given any share of credit for hard fought actions. Alluding to Lord Kitchener, he affirms that no other man could more staunchly have upheld the name of India and its army.

KULING FOR RETIRED CHINA HANDS.

A correspondent writing from Kuling says: Kuling has become quite a winter resort in addition to its well-known summer reputation. There are at present nearly 150 foreigners on the mountain with 127 Chinese servants.

It is becoming the home of retired China hands. There are, or will be shortly, nearly half a score of families or persons who have retired from active business or professional life, who are making this place their permanent residence; you would have to travel far in many lands to find a place with more advantages for such a class of folk.

There are British and American schools here for foreign children. The American School building, which is an imposing three-storied structure, will soon be under roof and will be occupied by about 70 students next year.

and made it difficult for them to purchase even the bare necessities of life. The chief decrease was that of cotton-yarn, which is usually imported from Japan. The chief increase was that of flour, 61,698 bags, valued at $134,553, having been imported, as compared with 596 bags, valued at $1,454, in 1918. Machine-made flour is rapidly increasing in popularity among the Chinese of the territory, and now that supplies not available during the war can be obtained, it is anticipated that flour will continue to form an important article of import.

Exports by steamer during the year were estimated in value at $2,232,222, as compared with $2,600,203 in 1918. The chief falling off was in cotton-yarn, only nine bales, valued at $2,240, having been exported, as compared with 992 bales, valued at $250,123 during the previous year.

Imports by junk during the year were estimated in value at $3,101,407, as compared with $3,821,124 last year. Exports by junk during the year amounted in value to $403,244, as compared with $37,416 in 1918. Wei-hai-wei was visited during the year by a total of 512 steamers, with a total net tonnage of 487,628, as compared with 519, with net tonnage of 443,238, in 1918. The total number of junks entering and clearing during 1919 was 4,235, as compared with 2,463 in the previous year, this increase being mainly due to the large importation of salt.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SERVICE AND CIVILIAN CLUB

[TO THE EDITOR OF "THE HONGKONG DAILY PRESS."]

Sir,—I think that the speakers at last night's meeting approached the subject of the mixing of Service men and Civilians on common ground at a joint club from a wrong point of view altogether.

It is not a question of social barriers at all; it is one of community of interests. The object of a social club is to provide a meeting-place for people of congenial tastes. Can you imagine, for instance, at home, say, a well-known owner of race-horses in a reading-room of the Athenaeum discussing with his fellow-members a proposed alteration in the Athanasian Creed, or, conversely, a bishop in the smoking-room of the Turf or the Raleigh giving his considered opinion on the merits of this season's two-year-olds, or the weights for the Lincoln Handicap? Would Service people consider it desirable that the Rag for instance, should be thrown open to Civilian membership?

I think the idea of a Service Club for Service men as a War Memorial is one which could hardly be bettered; but I am also of opinion that the civilian club should—if possible—be kept separate—not may I once more emphasise, on social grounds, but for the reason which I have endeavoured to illustrate above.

The more frequent the social intercourse between the two clubs, in the shape of bowling and billiards matches, whist-drives, bridge tournaments, and so forth the better.—Yours faithfully,

WELL-WISHER.

Hongkong, December 3rd, 1920.

WEDDING.

COOK—UNITE.

At St. Andrew's Church, Kowloon, yesterday afternoon, Mr. W. E. Cook, of the Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company, was married to Miss I. A. Unite, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Unite, of 238, The Bluff, Yokohama. The bride's dress was of white crepe de chine, and she wore a hat of the same material trimmed with white ostrich feathers. Her bouquet was of pink roses with a spray of orange blossoms.

Miss Catharine Watson, the bridesmaid, was prettily attired in a dress of mauve taffeta and wore a black hat. She carried a bouquet of violets.

Mr. P. E. F. Stone gave the bride away, Mr. J. G. Dick was bestman, and the Rev. G. R. Lindsay, the officiating clergyman.

Chopin's "Wedding March" was played on the organ as the bridal party left the church after signing the register. A reception was held at the Station Hotel and the happy couple, who were the recipients of many beautiful presents, left later in the afternoon for Macao where the honeymoon is being spent.

THE WARWICK COMEDY CO.

OPENING NIGHT PERFORMANCE ON MONDAY.

The Warwick Comedy Company open their season on Monday next at the Theatre Royal with the first presentation here of the recent St. James' success, "Uncle Ned." Mr. Edgar Warwick himself will play the title-role, which, in the original production, was played by that fine actor Henry Ainley. Miss Joan Mayne, a particularly talented actress, comes with a great reputation from London, and will play the lead. Miss Marjory Clark, a clever young actress (who will later on be seen in Edna Best's part in "Brown Sugar") plays an amusingly precocious chatter. Mr. N. Thorpe-Mayne, an experienced and well-known actor, has a particularly fine character role, and Mr. Frank Wheatley, another fine artist, will play a delightful old character "Dawkins." Miss Dorothy Radford and Mr. Tom Fenwick complete a brilliant cast. Several members of the company who are not in the cast of the opening play, will be seen in "The Case of Lady Camber" on the following evening, and will include Miss Beatrice Wynne, a clever emotional actress, Miss Lena Flowerdew, Miss Muriel Aked, who is irresistibly funny as "Peach" in "The Case of Lady Camber" and Mr. Dudley Howarth.

Plans are on view at Moutrie's to-day until 1 o'clock, and later at the Hongkong Hotel.

The Peking Government has fallen out with its Parliament. It has ordered that all the archives should be handed over to the "Parliamentary Preparatory Bureau" but both houses object. They insist on keeping the documents and declare that the Government's action is illegal.

PIRACY IN CHINESE WATERS.

A piracy is reported to have taken place in Chinese waters on December 1st, when a junk was seized, the master left on an island and the crew taken into captivity. The crew have not been heard of since.

The facts of the piracy, given by the master, who was rescued by a trading junk and brought to Hongkong were that, on Tuesday afternoon, his junk, which was of 180 piculs capacity, was returning to Hongkong and when near Tap Mun five men, in another boat, opened fire and ordered the master to lower his sails. Being afraid of fatal consequences if he refused, the master and crew, numbering three men, lowered the sails and dropped anchor. The pirates then came on board and it was noticed that three of them were armed with rifles. The master and crew were driven into a hold and the hatch was battened down. The pirates' boat was cut adrift and the pirates set sail in the captured junk to an uninhabited island where they left the master. They then proceeded in an easterly direction, taking with them the members of the crew. Fortunately there was no cargo on board. The junk and personal effects were valued at $225.

TRAVELLING FOR A BET.

CHARGED WITH NOT HAVING A TICKET. FLIGHT OF EUROPEAN.

A European named Alexander Victor Argon, claiming British nationality, though speaking with a foreign accent, was charged at the Magistracy, yesterday, with being found on board the Kanowna (from Japan) without paying for his passage.

Defendant said that he was not found hiding. He gave himself up to the captain. The predicament he found himself in was due to foolishness on his part. He had made a bet with a friend in Japan that he would travel to Sydney without a ticket, and this was the result.

Mr. Ross, of the E. & A. Company, said that the Commander of the Kanowna had written stating that Argon was found on board without a ticket and had informed him that he was a member of a well-known club in Japan and had made a bet to travel to Sydney without money. Had defendant got to Sydney, it would have cost the Company £100, as Argon's passport was not in order.

Argon said he wanted time to engage a solicitor as he realised that the case was a serious one. His passport was valid in October and being a British subject he did not think it was necessary to get it signed before he left.

Mr. Ross said that if passengers were allowed to proceed on vessels without paying for their tickets till they arrived at their destination it would be a waste of time for the Police to inspect passports.

Argon said he had a friend in Hongkong Mr. Maxwell, of the Yale Lock Co. who would speak for him.

Mr. Orme: People who sometimes break the law do it from more foolishness. You thought it was an adventure!

Argon: No; I am a consulting engineer in Japan.

Mr. Orme remarked that to send a man to gaol was small punishment in some cases, but in others it was a considerable punishment. He remanded the case till to-morrow to enable the defendant to get in touch with his friend.

WIRELESS TO MACAO.

SERVICE NOW OPEN.

The Hongkong General Post Office notifies that radio telegrams can now be accepted for transmission to Macao.

The Hongkong charge is 30 cents per word, with a minimum of ten words for $3. The Macao charge is 15 cents per word, with a minimum of $1.50 for ten words.

The hours of the service are from 7 to 8 a.m., from noon to 2 p.m., and from 7 to 10 p.m.

As the University of Paris will confer a doctor's degree on President Hu Shih-chang, it was decided at a recent Cabinet meeting that Mr. Yu Chow-yu, Chinese Charge d'Affaires at Paris, should be ordered to accept the honour on behalf of the President. This resolution was referred to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs for confirmation.

SPORT.

FOOTBALL.

TO-DAY'S LEAGUE MATCHES.

The following is the programme of matches in the Hongkong League to be played to-day—

DIVISION I.
Hongkong Club v. R.G.A. Club ground, at 4 p.m. Referee, Mr. Hollands.
Hongkong Police v. S.C.A. Navy "A" ground, at 4 p.m. Referee, Mr. Wells.

2nd Wilshire v. H.M.S. Tamar, Sookunpoo ground, at 4 p.m. Referee, Mr. Jones, R.N.
Kowloon v. Carlisle Navy "B" ground, at 4 p.m. Referee, Mr. Chessley.

DIVISION II.
22nd Punjab v. United Navy "B" ground, at 2.30 p.m. Referee, Mr. Drayton, R.N.

Oilers United v. Club de Recreo, Navy "A" ground, at 2.30 p.m. Referee, Mr. R. M. Omar.

H.K. Club Reserves v. Staff and Depts. Club ground, at 2.30 p.m. Referee, Mr. Hollands.

R.G.A. Reserves v. H.M.S. Carlisle, Reserves Sookunpoo ground, at 2.30 p.m. Referee, Mr. Jones, R.N.

S.C.A. Reserves v. Indian Recreation Club, S.C.A. ground, at 4 p.m. Referee, Mr. Sambells, R.N.

Kowloon Reserves v. St. Joseph's St. Joseph's ground, at 4 p.m. Referee, Mr. Sayer, R.N.

A full league programme has been arranged for to-day. H.M.S. Ambrose is the only League team not out.

The Club-R.G.A. match will draw a large crowd, where good football is expected. The Civilians are turning out a full side, and the Military team will be hard put to it if they expect to win. With J. Rodger again in the half back line the defence will be improved, but the attack will turn out the same as last week.

The R.G.A. are turning out their usual side and will be all out to win. A fast and even game is expected and, barring accidents, a draw should be the result.

The match between the Services at Sookunpoo will attract a large following of Service men. The game should be fast throughout, with the soldiers winners.

The Police receive the Chinese on the Navy "A" ground, where a very hard and fast game should take place. The Police are a team to be reckoned with just now, and the game should go in their favour. The S.C.A. will be out to win, and it is hoped that they will turn out a full side.

The Kowloon team will have the advantage over the Carlisle team, who have been out of first class football during the past month. A fast game will be seen, and the civilians should take the points.

It is nearly time that teams began to settle down, for constantly changing positions does not improve a player's chances, in a first class game.

The Staff should win against the Club Reserves who will not be fully represented.

The Kowloon Reserves-St. Joseph's College match should attract a good number of followers, for both these teams have been playing first class football and the former will be all out to save their unbeaten record.

The R.G.A. and Carlisle second strings should provide good sport, while the Service men are collecting for the Senior match at Sookunpoo and on form, the sailors should win, having beaten the S.C.A. Reserves, while the latter team beat the soldiers by 3 goals to 2.

The S.C.A. Reserves, Club de Recreo, and United should win their respective games.

THE CLUB v. R.G.A.

The following will represent the Club against the R.G.A. on the Club ground to-day, kick-off 4 p.m. sharp:—G. Rodger, W. Gerrard and F. Lawrence; M. L. Bailton, J. Rodger and J. B. McPail; J. B. Hamilton, L. Goldenberg, M. Sandberg, E. Moore and N. Oiler.

THE CLUB 2ND XI. v. STAFF AND DEPARTMENTS.

The following will represent the Club 2nd XI. against the Staff and Departments on the Club ground, kick-off 2.30 p.m. sharp:—G. Groot, Henderson and J. McCubbin; A. McDonald, W. Ireland and S. F. Sorenson; L. Jack, E. Bailton, Pilger, J. P. Sherry and A. Boyken.

CRICKET.

I.R.O. v. STAFF AND DEPARTMENTS.

In the above match to-day, at 2.15 p.m. on the Sookunpoo ground, the following will represent the I.R.O.:—A. H. Rumbold, S. H. Ismail, G. O. Earle, D. Weerapah, S. D. Ismail, K. Khan, S. K. Bakah, S. A. Ismail, A. Raul, J. B. Curreen and S. A. E. Ismail.

TO-MORROW'S FETE.

AN ELABORATE PROGRAMME.

The 37th annual al fresco fete of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be held in the Compound at the Cathedral, Caine Road, and the play-ground of the old St. Joseph's College to-morrow (Sunday) evening from 8.30 p.m. to 11.30 p.m. under the distinguished patronage of H.E. the Governor, Sir Reginald Edward Stubbs, K.C.M.G. and Lady Stubbs, H.E. Vice-Admiral Sir A. L. Duff, K.C.B., H.E. Major-General F. Ventris, C.B., and Commodore W. Bowden-Smith, C.B.E. The grounds will also be open in the afternoon from 2.30 p.m. to 6.30 p.m., when amusements specially suitable for children will be provided and tea and refreshments will be served. The Band of the Wiltshire Regiment will play during the afternoon.

The grounds will be brilliantly illuminated in the evening, and the Bands of the Wiltshire Regiment and the Societade Philharmonica will play between 8.30 p.m. and 11.30 p.m., the latter in the Cathedral Compound and the former in the College play-ground.

All the varied attractions of an old country fair will be provided, and there will be several raffles and lotteries to suit all purses, from the Ten-cent Stall to the Motor-car Raffle for a new $3,000 Oakland five-seater motor-car. The stalls, which to-morrow will be heavily laden with thousands of toys and good things of all kinds, are to-day being decorated by expert and willing hands from the Royal Navy, with a wealth of flags and bunting, and the Committee is leaving nothing undone to ensure that the appearance of the grounds to-morrow will surpass even that of the 1919 fete when the compounds, lighted as they were with a number of powerful Kinson lamps and hundreds of electric lights, were transformed into a veritable fairyland.

CHINA AND THE CONSORTIUM.

A BARRIER IMPOSED.

"WIN POSSIBILITIES" OF MINISTER OF FINANCE.

The following important letter from the Chinese Minister of Finance to the New Consortium is published in the N.-C. Daily News—

November 28th, 1920.

To the Representatives of Consortium Banks, Peking.

Gentlemen.—In pursuance of our conversation at the Ministry of Finance on November 23rd, I deem it expedient, in order to remove any misunderstanding as to my personal attitude with regard to the Consortium, to set down the following points—

1.—It is necessary that the Government of China should at this juncture secure financial aid for constructive purposes.

2.—If the Government is compelled to resort to foreign loans for this purpose,

(a) I personally cannot advise that any agreement embodying conditions calculated to establish a financial monopoly should be signed with any bank or group of banks; nor

(b) can I advise that any loan agreement be negotiated where the Land Tax of China should be set down as security and placed under foreign jurisdiction.

The Consortium has been formed with the object of assisting China in her reorganization. China, particularly myself, heartily welcomes such evidence of good will on the part of foreign financiers, but expects that it will be manifested in a manner which will leave no doubt in the minds of the people of China as to the motives which animate the foreign bankers, and which will correct the impression now prevailing that their national freedom is being mortgaged.—Yours faithfully,

(Signed) CHOW TSU-CHI, Minister of Finance.

Our Shanghai contemporary commenting on the letter says—

It is important to contradict, as far as possible, the false and indeed malicious impression it is likely to make. Its references to a "financial monopoly" and to the mortgaging of "national freedom" must tend, even if they are not expressly meant, to excite public animosity against the Consortium.

The only people whose freedom is endangered is the mandarins, whom the Consortium is endeavouring to prevent from borrowing money at the national expense for their own profit. The only sense in which it aims at a monopoly is in order to shut out other lenders who would be less scrupulous in insisting that the money borrowed was spent for the public good. The only way in which the security taken for a loan is to be subject to foreign jurisdiction—it would be more accurate to say supervision—would be that the revenues accruing would be put to the service of that loan and would not wander into illicit pockets.

Let the Chinese people consider the example of the Salt Gabelle. In that case the revenue, which is managed by under-foreigners, all others being Chinese, has been raised by good administration to nearly three times its former figure and its surplus has been a mainstay of the national finances. The aims of the New Consortium are even wider, for it has invited Chinese business men to co-operate in its transactions on equal terms. Only for official speculation and malversation there is to be no room.

DISORDER IN IRELAND. SUSPECTS ARRESTED.

LONDON, December 26th.

On the arrival of the Aquitania at Southampton from New York, six suspected Sinn Feiners were arrested for possessing arms and ammunition.

Professor MacNeill, who was arrested on November 26th, has been released. Mr. Griffith remains at Mount Joy Gaol.

Altogether 400 have been arrested in Dublin during the past ten days, including the manager and two of the staff of the newspaper Young Ireland.

The efficiency of the round-ups is evidenced by the numbers of rifles, revolvers, bombs and ammunition found lying in the streets of Dublin which the owners discarded, fearing discovery of possession.

A Sinn Fein hall in Limerick was burned down last evening.

There were four incendiary fires in Cork last evening. The City Hall was set afire by bombs thrown through the windows, but the fire was speedily checked.

The Police today searched the offices of the Irish Self-Determination League in London, as well as four other houses, and removed all documents and money.

RAID IN ARDEE—TWO MEN

KILLED.

Men in uniform raided several houses in Ardee, County Louth, and removed two men whose bodies were subsequently found outside the town.

The six suspects from the Aquitania were released and later proceeded to London.

It is officially announced that the bodies of the sixteen policemen murdered in the Macroom ambush had nearly all six bullet wounds each. They were also terribly mutilated, apparently being hacked with hatchets.

NEWSPAPER OFFICES SET ON FIRE.

A mysterious party of armed and masked men set fire to the offices of the Freeman's Journal in Dublin at midnight yesterday.

MYSTERIOUS SINN FEINER.

A mysterious Sinn Feiner described as "No. 87" has been remanded in custody in Liverpool on a charge of murdering a civilian, Daniel Ward, who detected the incendiaries.

Yesterday's arrests in Dublin included that of Mr. William Sears, M.P. Precautions taken in London against Sinn Feiners include a special guard of Heavy Service officers for every Cabinet Minister.

Before the Freeman's Journal offices were set on fire, armed and masked men entered the offices of the Unionist paper the Irish Times and held up the editorial staff on the point of a revolver and extracted a promise that nothing would be divulged.

TO PROTECT JUDGES AND WITNESSES.

Two men were detained in London as a result of anti-Sinn Fein raids but were subsequently released.

Most elaborate precautions have been taken to protect the Judges and witnesses at the Ulster Assizes in Belfast, where the cases number 500, mostly arising from the recent riots.

In the House of Commons, Sir Hamar Greenwood, asked if the Police would be armed, replied that any officer on dangerous duty was supplied with a revolver. The Police authorities had the discretion to arm the men.

Fires in Cork this morning were attended with thrilling scenes. Two ladies sleeping in a flat were awakened by a bomb explosion, and dashed down the blazing staircase in their nightdresses. They escaped and were only slightly injured.

A Dublin Castle communiqué reports that two ex-soldiers were seized by armed civilians in Killinakeel, Tipperary, and chained to a wall at Kilkenny for two days. They were unable to lie down, owing to the shortness of the chain.

GOVERNMENT SATISFIED WITH ITS MEASURES.

LONDON, November 30th. In the House of Commons, replying to Mr. Leonard Lyl. Mr. Shortt stated that the existing powers of the Government, including the Defence of the Realm Regulations, were sufficient to deal effectively with Sinn Fein outrages in England, but when the Defence of the Realm Act expired it might be necessary to ask further powers.

THE MACROOM OUTRAGE.

The victims at Macroom were not "Black-and-Tans," but officers of the Auxiliary division stationed at Macroom Castle. They are all ex-officers, selected for meritorious services in the field during war-time. The Castle has been a sort of an island in the Sinn Fein sea. The scene was an ideal spot for an ambush; one side of the road overhangs a cliff while on the other side is a wood. The road takes a sharp right-angle turn at this point. The massacre has again brought into prominence the question of sending out parties in police cars absolutely unprotected. The auxiliaries are perched on high seats and crowded together, without even elbow room, and without an inch of cover. Thus, they are human targets which a child could not miss.

A military funeral in London has been offered to the relatives of the victims.

GRUESOME DETAILS OF KILMICHAEL AMBUSH.

LONDON, November 30th.

Particulars of the bloody slaughter of the Royal Irish Constabulary Auxiliaries near Kilmicheel were given by Sir Hamar Greenwood in the House of Commons in the course of the Irish debate on the question of adjournment.

Sir Hamar Greenwood said that the Liverpool outrages and the London attempt showed that the Sinn Fein murder gang was carrying on its senseless campaign of murder and arson in Great Britain, and it will be extended to persons and property here, unless the country was thoroughly roused—(cheers).—He proceeded to read telegrams regarding the Kilmicheel ambush which consisted of about eighty to a hundred men, all dressed in black and steel trench helmets. They fired from both sides of the road and also had a direct enfilade fire straight down. By force of arms some of the Crown men were disarmed and brutally murdered. Their bodies were rifled and all money and valuables were taken. Clothings were robbed from the corpses. Sir Hamar Greenwood did not think that with fifteen ex-officers of the force, thus lying dead in the face of the League of Nations, in the face of the League at Geneva or, in an exceptional case, at any other place selected by the Council.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS. GENEVA TO BE PERMANENT SEAT.

LONDON, November 30th. It has been decided by the Assembly of the League of Nations to adopt the proposal of Signor Ferraris (Italy), that the Assembly meet yearly on the first Monday of September at the seat of the League at Geneva or, in an exceptional case, at any other place selected by the Council.

BLOCKADE PROVISIONS.

LONDON, December 1st. Important resolutions, preparing the way for the effective application of economic weapons in favour of world peace, have been passed by the League of Nations Committee of the League, presided over by Lord Robert Cecil. The resolutions propose that in the event of a breach of the Covenant being reported to the Council, each country belonging to the League break off diplomatic relations with the delinquent State and take the most rapid measures possible and necessary, compatible with its national constitution, to prohibit its inhabitants from having relations with the inhabitants of that State against which the blockade is directed.

FRANCE AND THE VATICAN. DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS RESUMED.

PARIS, December 1st. The French Chamber of Deputies has, by 397 votes to 209, adopted a Bill re-establishing the French Embassy at the Vatican. A diplomatic rupture has existed between France and the Vatican since 1905.

COAL TRADE RESTRICTIONS. RELAXED BY BOARD OF TRADE.

LONDON, November 30th. The Board of Trade has issued an order freeing the coal export trade from all restrictions in regard to price and conditions of sale, but the quality and description of coal, which may be exported or applied for foreign bunkering, remains subject to existing restrictions.

TREATY OF RAPALLO. SIGNOR D'ANNUNZIO'S OPPOSITION.

LONDON, December 1st. There are prospects of a conflict between Signor Gabriello D'Annunzio and the Government troops in consequence of the former's defiance of the Treaty of Rapallo. Signor D'Annunzio, in a proclamation, says the Legionaries are ready to sacrifice themselves, if necessary.

GRAVE SITUATION.

LONDON, November 30th. It is considered that a most grave situation is developing in connection with the extension of the Sinn Fein outrages; and the Metropolitan and special constables have been warned to be in readiness for duty. They will probably be asked to co-operate in the work of patrolling the warehouse areas.

Light was thrown on the coffin-makers' workshop explosion, news of which was published on November 28th, at the Court of Inquiry, when the Police testified that they found a tin box there, hidden under a bench, containing 353 rounds of revolver ammunition, all flat-headed, also an unexploded bomb, concealed.

NAVAL PROMOTION.

LONDON, November 30th. Admiral Sir Cecil Burney has been promoted Admiral of the Fleet vice Admiral of the Fleet, Sir George A. Dalrymple (Glasgow).

AUSTRIA'S POSITION.

A MENACE TO EUROPEAN TRADE.

LONDON, December 1st.

One of the most important issues to be decided in the conference this week between Mr. Lloyd George, M. Leygues and Signor Stora is the fate of Austria, whose financial position recently has become most critical, and is threatening her very existence.

The Vienna newspapers state that the Reparations Committee is of the opinion that Austria can be maintained independently from Germany and reconstructed by the investments of $500,000,000, spread over five years.

Political and financial circles in London favour Government participation in such an investment on the ground that it is a sound insurance against a worse alternative. It is generally believed that the residue of the Austro-Hungarian Empire cannot be again thrown into the political melting pot without great danger of another war.

The banking and industrial interests are also anxious that the slump in British trade should not be aggravated by such an economic upheaval, as must inevitably ensue upon the dissolution of Austria, as Vienna is still regarded as the gateway to the Balkan trade. If this is paralysed, British trade in the Balkans cannot be restored, and unemployment in Britain must correspondingly increase.

The Conference between Mr. Lloyd George, M. Leygues and Signor Stora will be resumed to-morrow. It is understood that the conversations have hitherto proved that there is no strong divergence of views on Greek and other matters, but it seems certain, however, that Greece, under the new regime, cannot, or most likely will not, do all that which was expected of Greece under the administration of M. Venizelos. This alone will involve the revision of the Treaty of Secrete.

EX-KAISER'S INCOME.

HUGE VOTES FROM GERMANY.

LONDON, December 1st.

Mr. Bonar Law, replying to a question in the House of Commons, stated that he understood that $5,000,000 marks had been sent to the ex-Kaiser from Germany since January 1st, 1919. The attention of the Reparations Committee had been directed to the matter, but it was not very easy to recover the money.

Mr. George Lambert, Have the Allies taken precautions that the money will not be used in order to bring back the Hohenzollerns to Berlin?

Mr. Bonar Law replied that the Allies were keeping their eyes on what was being done in that connection.

TRADE DEPRESSION.

MR. LLOYD GEORGE'S WARNING.

LONDON, December 1st.

Mr. Lloyd George, speaking at a dinner of the Federation of British Industries, referred to the coming serious trade depression which was world-wide. He was afraid it was inevitable, he said, but the question was whether or not anything was possible to shorten it and mitigate its evils. The first remedy was peace. Europe must work with both hands. She could not handle the sword in one hand and the gavel in the other. In the main, the Government's policy was that the less interference there was with trade the better. He appealed to the nation to back up the Government in the campaign for economy. He declared that there must be thrift, not only in the Government departments, but in the homes of the Empire. Family Committees on economy were needed as well as Government Committees.

DEMAND FOR GOVERNMENT

BRETRENCHMENT.

At a great meeting in London representing 32,000 manufacturers, the value of whose undertakings is estimated at $5,000,000,000, it was unanimously resolved to demand the immediate withdrawal of the Excess Profits Duty and the Corporation Taxes. The resolution pointed out that the taxable capacity of the country had been already exceeded, and that drastic retrenchment by the Government was imperative to secure the stability and development of trade.

LONDON, December 1st.

Owing to the slump in the fur trade, in which values have recently fallen about 70 per cent, Messrs. A. and W. Nesbitt, Limited, one of the largest firms of fur brokers in the world, has gone into voluntary liquidation. It is stated that considerably over $1,000,000 is involved.

ABORTIVE ATTEMPT TO RESTRICT THE COLONIES.

The correspondent of the Times at Madrid states that the delegates from the British Empire to the Postal Convention in Spain have defeated a proposal to suppress the rates of all Colonies and Dominions. The Convention has been signed and the Dominions and Colonies will, therefore, continue their several great independent organisations.

In the House of Commons, replying to Mr. G. Locker Lampson, Mr. Churchill stated that the British Army was distributed, approximately, as follows:—

Home—123,000, including nearly 50,000 in Ireland; the Rhine, 13,000; Egypt, Palestine, the Black Sea, Mesopotamia and North-West Persia, 43,500; the Colonies 9,500; France and Flanders, 3,500; India and Aden, 64,000; Miscellaneous, 7,500. The total number of troops was 295,000.

GERMANY'S DESTROYED AIRCRAFT.

REPARATION REFUSED.

BERLIN, November 30th.

The German Government has replied to the Allies' demand for compensation for the German dirigibles destroyed during July, 1919, either with money or with new construction, that the German Government cannot recognise any obligation to pay compensation, and suggests that, if the Allies did not agree with this standpoint, the matter might be submitted to an arbitration court.

ANILINE DYES.

LARGE AMERICAN COMBINATION.

LONDON, December 1st.

Reuter learns that one of the most important amalgamations in the world's aniline colour industry is nearing completion in the United States. Five companies have combined, with a capital of $50,000,000, and with a plant for the extraction of nitrogen from the atmosphere, propose to manufacture dyestuffs, heavy chemicals, and mineral acids. The scope of this combination's activities will be wider than that of the German Trust. Legislation has been drafted already and submitted to Congress for the protection of the new enterprise.

SOVIET AND CHINA.

LENIN'S FIRST REPRESENTATIVE.

LONDON, December 1st.

General Chang Shih-chiao, chief of the Chinese mission to Soviet Russia, according to Bolshevik telegrams from Moscow, has completed his negotiations with M. Tchicherin about Sino-Russian relations and is now en route for Peking, via Siberia, says the Harbin correspondent of the Asiatic News Agency. Another interesting information is that the Bolsheviks, in addition to M. Yourin, are sending M. Livinoff, who was recently expelled from London by the British authorities for Bolsheviki propaganda in Great Britain, to Peking as the first Soviet representative to China.

APPETITE VERSUS PREJUDICE.

CHANGES IN JAPAN.

LONDON, December 1st.

The Tokio correspondent of the London Morning Post, in the course of a contribution on the increasing love of the Japanese for the flesh-pots of the West, writes:—

It is most remarkable that in a country where, under the influence of Buddhism, the people had been induced to refrain from eating meat for so many centuries, they should now suddenly become great meat-eaters. When the meat habit first became conspicuous, great prejudice was aroused. Even to take the milk of the cow was deemed eccentric. At first beefsteak was called sukiyaki, "steak day," because, such anger did the killing and eating of cows arouse, that those who could not resist the temptation had to take their steaks into the hills and fry them in secret on a spade over some coals. Sixty or seventy years ago in Japan only the clerics, or parish class, would be guilty of so grave an indiscretion as the eating of a dead animal. And yet I have heard of a man being prosecuted before the Courts for eating his neighbour's dog. Thus even so dignified and traditional-revering a race as the Japanese, when they change, do so extremely.

NATIONAL PARKS FOR JAPAN.

SEVEN PARKS CONTEMPLATED.

LONDON, December 1st.

The construction of seven magnificent national parks in Japan is under consideration at the Department of Home Affairs, says the Hochi. One will be constructed at Hakone, taking part of the slope of Mt. Fuji. Next comes Nikko and its neighbourhood ranging to Shiobara, and the third is near the Inland Sea of Seto. The mountain range of so-called Japan Alps comprising Komagatake, Yagatake, Mtsake and Yatsugatake is also being considered among the beautiful spots, while Mt. Asama and its surrounding region from Karizawa to Kusugake will be also undoubtedly among the number considered. Lake Towada in Aomori prefecture and Mt. Kirishima in Kagoshima prefecture are to be transformed into popular resorts. One of the authorities interviewed by the Hochi is credited with the statement that the proposed construction of cable-car lines between Nikko and Shiobara will be undertaken by the Government.

FOREIGN LAND OWNERSHIP

LAW IN JAPAN.

RESTRICTIONS REMOVED.

LONDON, December 1st.

The Foreign Land Ownership Law, approved by the Diet ten years ago, but still deferred, prohibits foreigners owning land in the Hokkaido, Formosa, Karafuto, etc., but the revised Law, to be submitted to the Diet next session, says the Japan Gazette, removes such restrictions. Korea is also included in the new Law. Altogether, the new Law allows foreigners to own land anywhere in Japan, except at points necessary for national defence.

STRAITS TIN MARKET COLLAPSE.

The tin market has collapsed. Tin is quoted at 212½ sterling compared with 243 a few days ago.

The rubber market continues very depressed.

FAR EASTERN CABLE NEWS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NEW SILVER BILL AND OUTLOOK IN FAR EAST.

LONDON, November 30th.

In the House of Commons, during the discussion on the Gold and Silver Export Bill, Mr. Samuel moved its rejection and declared that freedom to export silver to the East was essential for our great interests there. He said that the Government encouraged the formation in Great Britain of a syndicate to have the sole right of financing the Chinese Government. The British syndicate had formed a syndicate in China composed of Chinese merchants. If the Bill were passed, the Government would be supporting a Chinese financial group, thus eliminating the whole of the British merchants in China. The latter would not be able to carry out any large contracts with China. He believed that negotiations were going on with a syndicate representing America, Japan and China. He asked whether an arrangement was made with the Governments of those countries to prohibit the export of silver to China, except through the Chinese syndicate. One consequence

A GARDEN OF REMEMBRANCE

"I came upon it unexpectedly—the name was carved upon the entrance gates, and an ancient board within them bore the following inscription:

"This garden is sacred to the memory of the men of this town who fought and died in the Great War 1914-1918.

"Reverence to their ashes, and do nothing to mar its beauty."

A yew tree, the emblem of immortality, threw its shadow across the central path leading to the Memorial Shrine. This path ran between hedges of rosemary, and was bordered on either side with many-coloured pansies.

To the right and left of it ran other winding grassy ones, massed with the flowers of memory, a haze of blue "forget-me-nots," as far as eye could reach.

These led to enclosed lawns, on one of which was a large bed of "magnolias" in the shape of a Victoria Cross, and on the other, the word RESURGAM was formed in violas of mauve and white.

The shrine was of great simplicity and beauty. Constructed from the mellow stone of the country, it was surrounded by flowers—lavender, roses, and love-in-a-mist.

The central panel, beautifully sculptured, represented Christ appearing to Mary in the garden of the Resurrection.

The panels on either side bore the names of the Roll of Honour, and below were the words:

"Sacred to the dear and honoured memory of the men of this town of His Majesty's Royal Navy and Marines, of the Royal Air Force, and of the 4th Regiment who gave their lives for England, and for the safety and honour of all that they held most dear—1914-1918. May their names be held in everlasting remembrance."

Not far from the shrine, in a corner where sweetbriar and climbing roses, and every fragrant herb ran riot, was a sundial of the same stone, which bore the following inscription:

"The shadow of this world; the everlasting light shall shine upon you for evermore."

All the oaken seats of the garden bore carved inscriptions, which I noted down, as each one of them contained a message of hope and immortality. They were as follows, twelve in all:

"Fast in His Paradise where no flower can wither."

"The righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance."

"Thou art not farther than my thoughts can reach, and I am still with them—and they with thee."

"In weal or woe, in gloom or glee, I'll think of thee, I'll think of thee, a watered garden, and they shall not sorrow any more at all."

"Everlasting joy shall be upon their heads."

"The care of them is with the Most High."

"Their hope is full of immortality."

"All selfish men are saviours."

"Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends."

"God shall give you to me again with joy and gladness for ever."

"It was a place to rest in, that garden of remembrance—the sound of the river flowing beneath its walls was full of peace. As I passed along the rosemary walk again when leaving, the words and the melody of a song heard in the days that seem so distant now—the days before the War—came back to memory."

"Bring roses if you will for love: And one small bunch of rue; But on my heart lay rosemary, To speak to me of you."

DRAMA FOR THE PEOPLE.

MISS LENA ASHWELL'S SCHEME.

During the war Miss Lena Ashwell and her committee of enthusiastic workers built up a wonderfully efficient organization for entertaining the troops in the various theatres of the war, and when hostilities ceased it was obvious that every effort should be made to continue the work, on somewhat different lines, during peace.

Last winter a start was made with the new scheme of bringing good drama to the people in those parts of London which have no theatre, and successful seasons at Bethnal Green and at Harewood led up to a much more ambitious scheme.

Under the new scheme Miss Ashwell's committee cooperates with the municipal authorities in giving drama to the people in their districts. The "Once a Week Players," as they are to be known, will be seen on the same evening every week at a town hall or other public hall, and as long as the public support it a difference will be offered each week. On Monday the company will be at the Eulham Town Hall, on Tuesdays at the People's Palace, Mile End, and on Fridays at the Shoreditch Town Hall, and on Saturdays at the Camberwell Baths. In addition the scheme has the support of the Mayors of Bethnal Green, Hackney, Islington, St. Pancras, Southwark, Woolwich, and Poplar.

In the first week Mrs. Goring's "Nockles" will be presented. This will be followed by "Thorogood," a new play by Mr. W. T. Colby, "Leah Kleinsch," and "The Brave and the Fair," a new play by Miss Cicely Hamilton. The company also has in its repertoire the following plays, which will also be presented should the public support enable the performances to be continued:—"Twelfth Night," "The Duke of Kent," "The Thief," "Liberty Hall," "Diana of Dobson's," "Nobody's Daughter," and "The Child in Flanders." The prices have been fixed at 2d., 3d., and 4d., including tax, and season tickets are issued admitting to four consecutive plays at a charge of 9s. for reserved seats and 4s. 6d. for unreserved.

3,000,000 WAR MEDALS ISSUED.

The War Office state that three million War medals have now been distributed to individuals, or sent to Record Offices at home, and to the Overseas Dominions and colonies for distribution. This distribution included 350,000 1914 Star, 1,397,465 1914-15 Star, 909,491 British War medals, and 699 Victory medals. 275,000 1914-15 Star, over 900,000 British War medals, and 50 Victory medals have gone to Overseas Dominions and Colonies.

Up to the end of September the following issues of decorations and other honours gained for War services had been made: M.C. 32,097; M.C. clasp, 2,993; D.C.M. 2,971; M.M. 11,997; M.S.M. 28,699; silver War badge, 1,199,629; 1914 Star clasps, 26,497; silver Cross, 122,633; Oak Leaf emblem, 78,110.

MOTHER

SEIGEL'S SYRUP

Women can only feel young, and look young, when their health is good. A pasty complexion, hollow cheeks, dull eyes, faltering step, and a drooping figure are indications that something is wrong. That something, in most cases, is the faulty action of the digestive system, giving rise to indigestion—the arch enemy that so often robs a woman of her strength, vitality, and the rosy bloom of health.

All women who suffer from indigestion and liver troubles, who are tired all the time, and never really well, can find quick relief in the world-famous remedy, Mother Seigel's Syrup. By its specific action upon the digestive organs, the Syrup banishes indigestion, constipation, and biliousness, and so preserves the rosy bloom of health for women, and makes them look young and feel young. Mother Seigel's Syrup is known all over the world as women's unfailing friend. Try it yourself!
